Soap Stars Have A Golfin' Good Time For Charity!

◆ Puttin' At The Piers!

Several stars lifted their clubs at the golf club house on Pier 59 of New York City's Chelsea Piers during a recent benefit for the Bone Marrow Foundation.

GUIDING LIGHT's Mary Kay Adams caught up with former co-star and fellow femme fatale Marj Dusay (Vanessa, ALL MY CHILDREN; ex-Alex, GUIDING LIGHT) as both women showed a side of themselves considerably more sporty than their posh on-screen personas.

David Andrew Macdonald (ex-Jordan Stark/David Halliday, ANOTHER WORLD; now Prince Edmund, GUIDING LIGHT) was his usual dashing self as he chatted with event chairperson Marcia Tovsky. Macdonald's new co-star Crystal Chappell (Olivia; ex-Maggie, ONE LIFE TO LIVE) was a big hit with fans, as was her husband Michael Sabatino (ex-Peter, AS THE WORLD TURNS; ex-Jonathan Kinder, ALL MY CHILDREN). Macdonald was particularly excited at the chance to meet fab footballer Jason Fabrini of the New York Jets, but all the stars were delighted by the gorgeous sunset that greeted them as they made their puts and auctioned off soap memorabilia to benefit the foundation. A perfect day, a beautiful view and a great cause — is there a better way to spend an afternoon? Not for these giving soapers!
